MAYOR AND COUNCIL COMMENTS:
New Business-not necessarily in order of discussion
A. Discuss repair to the sidewalk directly in front of the Post Office. Clerk received a call that the dip in the sidewalk needs to be filled in. The pavement was sanded years ago, because in the winter the concrete heaves and was causing the door to drag and get stuck. Now the PO considers this a risk and have created a work order to have it fixed. Daran will look at it and see what it may take to repair asap.
B. Update regarding stray cats in town. Due to uproar about the City taking part in removal, (which was never intended, nor assumed, to mean killing any cats) the City has decided to step aside and allow any property owners to take care of any strays they may have. A new letter will be drafted and sent out. Please be advised per City Ordinance 55.06 AT LARGE PROHIBITED. It is unlawful for any owner to allow an animal to run at large within the corporate limits of the City. If your animals should get out, you must make sure they have a collar WITH a tag to ensure they can be returned to you. If you have concern about a lost animal, contact the Grundy County Sheriff.
C. Resident asking for replacement of broken and cracked swing seats at the park. Clerk believes new seats were ordered at time new playground equipment was ordered, but unsure if they were ever installed. She will check the City shed this spring, if we need new ones she will get pricing.
D. New hours for City Hall will be: 1st of the month on meeting days City Hall will be open from 10am-4:30 pm, then closed until meeting begins at 7:00pm. Every Wed. 10am-8:30pm and Thur. 10am-3pm. Any change will be posted in the Post Office and on City Hall door. She will be present the last week of the month too working on month end needs.
E. Mayor would like to discuss setting a schedule for Council members to take turns going thru bills and reconciling accounts monthly. D. Ross agreed to come in up to 1 hour before Council meeting to go thru bills and bill list. And Council members will come in the evening of Dec. 14 to reconcile previous months' accounts with bank statement. They will schedule time for reconciliation at each meeting. D. Ross moved to approve this new process, seconded by B. Engel. Ayes: 2. Motion carried.
New Business:
A. B. Engel shared her concern with large rocks in alley bordering Mayor Rich's yard may be in the way of snow play. Joe will make sure the large rocks get moved.
B. Discussion about Nagel property. Looks like no vehicles have been moved. Council has now decided that he will have 45 days from receipt of letter to remove ALL vehicles from property that are not licensed AND running. Letter was also forwarded to land lords or property.

Water Clerk Report: Report for Nov 2016 will be reviewing and sending out shut-off notices
Water Superintendent Report: Scott's received meter to be placed for use during the summer. Council agreed to charge $50 for meter. Also, City was billed for Metz water meter. Send bill for reimbursement. See charge for new installs in Ordinance book.
RESOLUTIONS: None
ORDINANCE: None

FLASHBACK
Charlie Peters

By DAVID PIKE
Special to The Grundy Register

If the movie "Marathon Man" was cast featuring a Grundy Center graduate, the lead character could have been Charlie Peters. Charlie followed up his competitive athletic career of football and wrestling by taking up long-distance running, meaning Marathons, those 26.2 mile races!

Charlie Peters was a very tough and focused athlete in high school. This showed on the football field when he played center and middle linebacker; lettering three years on the gridiron. He was team captain and first team all-conference as a senior, finishing with a fine 6-2 record with the help of big Chuck Kruse and Jerry Bakker in the line blocking for running back Roger Bertram.
One of Charlie's favorite football memories was when he found out an opponent's nose tackle weighed 260 pounds! He went to Coach Marv Ott and asked how to handle a guy who outweighed him by 100 pounds. Coach Ott said to forget his assignments for the first series and, "Just go after the guy full force every play; he'll be putty in your hands". Sure enough, Charlie did exactly that and owned the guy the rest of the game with "heart" winning over size.
The toughness Charlie showed in football carried over directly to wrestling. A four-year letterman, Charlie made varsity on the very first Spartan wrestling team when John Doak began the program in 1961. Coach Doak literally hounded Charlie to come out for the new sport of wrestling his freshman year. Nobody had ever seen a wrestling match, let alone understood the sport. It took some convincing, but once Charlie got a taste of the sport, he was in it for the long haul. This decision had a major impact on Charlie's life because it put him on the map for college coaches and gave him the incentive to further his education.
Like everyone else on that first 1961 wrestling team (including guys like Ken Mutch, Goldie Sealman and Bob Smith), Charlie took his lumps, learning the basics of wrestling as the team went 0-8 in duals. He was pinned once his freshman season and vowed it would never happen again. In over seven years of wrestling in high school and college, it never did. As a sophomore, the Spartans improved to 6-6 and Charlie was named the Most Improved Wrestler on the team. He attributed a lot of his improvement and future success to the stairs Coach Doak made the wrestlers run at the old elementary school. Those stairs helped make the Spartans the best-conditioned team around.
As a junior and senior, Charlie established himself as the leader of the wrestling team. He was not only winning a vast majority of his matches, but he was pinning many of his opponents, too, using that conditioning and his own determination. While wrestling at 145# as a senior, Charlie posted a 22-4 record setting the Spartan season record with 14 pins and a team career record of 23 pins while winning two invitational tournaments. The Spartans finished the season 10-3 in dual meets winning both Sectional and District crowns.
One vivid memory for Charlie was from a meet at Beaman-Conrad, a strong wrestling rival that had a very formidable opponent to face Charlie. While taking a sip of water at a drinking fountain prior to the meet, his opponent came over to him and said, "I'm going to whip your butt!" Charlie just glared back without saying a word and walked away. With the Spartans trailing as he took the mat, the Grundy Register reported the result as a "brief, but bruising match" as Charlie pinned his opponent to tie the team score. That meet went down to the heavyweight match where Chuck Kruse won it for the Spartans.
Charlie Peters was one of the three wrestlers who first qualified for the State wrestling tournament. Charlie joined junior teammates Wayne Wrage and Larry McClanathan by qualifying at Districts. Back in 1965, there were only two classes and eight participants at each weight. Charlie lost his first-round match to Algona's Dave Martin, who went on to become a four-time All-American and National champion wrestler at Iowa State. Back in those days, there were no wrestle backs if you lost in the first round, so Charlie's high school wrestling career was over.
Looking back on his high school wrestling career, Charlie fondly remembered the strong support the team had from the Grundy Center fans, not only for home meets, but also for the great support on the road. He recalled hard-core Spartan wrestling fans he'd always see in the stands Wayne Wrage, Sr., Marv Ralston, Porky Stumberg, Bud Pike, Jim Miller, Roger Mooty, Roger Whitcome, Don Coleman, Martin Sharp, and others.
In college, Charlie was a three-year letterman and varsity wrestler on the Wayne State College team winning over 60% of his matches. Unfortunately, Charlie had to miss his senior season due to a major concussion. The Wayne State wrestling teams those years were all Conference championship teams and two of those teams were inducted into Wayne State's Athletics Hall of Fame.
After graduating, Charlie taught and coached for 13 years and refereed wrestling at both high school and college levels. He left teaching for the robotic business world and found out he was becoming such a workaholic that it was affecting his health and his heart. Charlie was told by doctors to find another outlet besides work to channel his energy.
At age 39, Charlie took up distance running and set a goal to run a marathon in 1989. He did, and successfully qualified for the Boston Marathon on his first attempt. He not only did one marathon, Charlie liked it well enough to run 13 more before his knees and hip forced him to quit running in 1999. By then, he had qualified for the Boston Marathon five times, ran in it four times, and ran marathons around the country in cities like Honolulu, St. Louis, the Twin Cities, Milwaukee, and the Disney Marathon in Orlando.
Since his marathon years, Charlie has channeled his energy and enthusiasm into scuba diving, sky diving, and hang gliding. As a pilot since 1967, he also enjoyed the challenge of flying with Air Combat USA where they actually flew prop plane fighters in aerial combat competitions. Charlie Peters remained an adventurer to the core.
