The minutes of the May meeting were read and approved on a motion by Knaack, seconded by

On a motion by Buhrow, seconded by Knaack, bills were approved totaling $5446.18 for the Landfill Closure Fund and $3415.93 for the citizen's Convenience Center.

Business Items:

The County Auditor's office received no bids for hauling refuse to the Rural lowa Landfill by the published deadline (9 AM on 6/9/14) based upon the "Notice to Bidders" published in the Grundy Register. The Commission will continue to work with the existing long-time hauler.

Schoolman reported that Phelps Implement repaired a tractor oil leak and short in the wiring. Things are going well at the Citizens Convehas hauled 12,000 gallons of leachate since weather conditions have permitted hauling. The truck is functioning satisfactorily. The inventory list for the Landfill/CCC has been updated to include the new forklift.

On a motion by Smith, seconded by Buhrow, the Commission voted to approve the Financial Assurance document prepared by HLW Engineering. That report indicates that the balance in the closure fund on the date of the report was $939,181, which exceeds the required amount of $695,500. Chm. Melcher indicated the he may be absent
