Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

HAS YOUR CORN FARM LOST MONEY?

Despite China's refusal to approve Syngenta's GMO seed, Syngenta continued to sell its seed to U.S. corn farmers. When China banned U.S. corn imports, the price of corn fell dramatically, and corn farmers across the country lost BILLIONS of dollars.

We represent individual farmers.

Our team represented over 2000 individual farmers in the Rice GMO claim. We opposed the class action and secured more for the farmers we represented. Our group of lawyers will continue meeting with farmers with respect to each farmer's individual Syngenta claim.

Clear Lake Care Center receives person directed care certification

By Travis Fischer

A change is sweeping the nation when it comes to care centers. Nursing homes across the country are striving to receive certification for Person Directed Care, a new philosophy on how best to take care of elderly care center residents.

ABC Corporation's Oakwood Care Center in Clear Lake is among the latest of facilities to receive their Person Directed Care certification.

"It's a lot about having personal choices," said Janice McCoy, a social worker with ABCM Corporation. "Here we do everything we can to meet your schedule."

For decades, the standard practice in nursing homes was one of rigid schedules and procedure. The daily lives of residents were set to a strict routine, from when they woke up, to what they did during the day, and right down to what foods they ate. Essentially treated more like children than adults.

Likewise, the performances of nurses was judged by how effectively they kept residents to that schedule, rather than the quality of care they were able to give to any particular resident.

"The first time I got in trouble as a nurse was when I was spending too much time with the residents," said Sheri Weaver-Isvik of the Oakwood Care Center.

With Person Directed Care, this methodology is changing. A new emphasis is placed on individual freedom for the residents and creating a customized level of care that suits their needs without intruding on their personal habits.

"We're going away from the medical model of a hospital-like setting and becoming a home for residents," said McCoy.

The process to get certified as a Person Directed Care facility is not an easy one. There are 94 benchmarks the facility must meet that measures everything from relationships and empowerment to customer service and employee learning. While many of the benchmark requirements were already being met at Oakwood Care Center, others took some extra effort to reach. It took Oakwood Care Center seven years of work adjusting their policies and practices before they met all 94 benchmarks.

"It wasn't quite as easy as we thought it was going to be," said Weaver-Isvik. "It's a lot of work, but it's so rewarding. We have an excellent team of caregivers."

However, the work has paid off. Oakwood Care Center received their certification on February 11 and celebrated with a party attended by residents, staff, and other members of ABCM Corporation, including CEO Richard Allbee.

"I'm really proud of your team," said Allbee. "We've come a long way in this business. It takes a lot of work, a lot of effort, and a lot of great people."

Oakwood Care Center is the third ABCM owned care center to receive their Person Directed Care certification.

The effort has been appreciated by the residents at Oakwood Care Center as well. Residents have been happy with the freedom to choose their own meals, set their own schedules, and decide what activities they want to fill their days with.

ABCM CEO Richard Allbee congratulates Oakwood Care Center for reaching their goal of Person Directed Care.

"It couldn't get any better," said Hazel Miller, one of the residents at Oakwood Care Center. "You're not tied down by anybody. If you decide to go downtown, you're allowed to go. They're marvelous."

Sherri Weaver-Isvik, Janice McCoy, and Kelly Gute accept Person Directed Care certification on behalf of Oakwood Care Center in Clear Lake.
