County will remove six trees from Courthouse Square

By ROBERT MAHARRY
The Grundy Register

GRUNDY CENTER - Amidst concerns surrounding general decay and future liability, the Grundy County Board of Supervisors voted 3-2 to remove six trees in the southern and western sections of the courthouse lawn during Monday morning's regular meeting.

Supervisor Jim Ross led the push to get the trees cut down after the Iowa Communities Assurance Pool (ICAP), which insures the county, recommended "removing dead tree limbs or whole trees that exhibit hazardous and/or unstable conditions." Currently, six of the trees are already cabled, and County Maintenance Director Mark Jungling told the board that one tree on the south lawn could knock out a power line that would leave the entire southern half of Grundy Center without electricity.

"Whether we acknowledge it or not, I think it's a hazard," Ross said. "If they were mine, they'd be gone a long time ago. Those trees are junk."

Supervisor Barb Smith, on the other hand, lamented that the trees are the "crown jewels" of the downtown area, and any mention of removing them has drawn fierce opposition among members of local groups she has spoken with in Grundy Center. She told Ross that while she could get behind removing three of the most rotted and hollowed out trees, she viewed going "hog wild" and taking down five or six as excessive. She also worried that in authorizing the removal without first seeking quotes to assess the cost, the county would be "signing a blank check."

"This keeps getting worse," Smith said when Ross revised his original motion to call for the removal of six trees instead of five.

After a trip outside to examine the trees with Jungling, Ross's motion to move forward See SUPERVISORS page 3

A total of six trees (shown in three separate photos above) will be removed from the southern and western quadrants of the courthouse lawn due to deterioration or poor condition after the Board of Supervisors voted 3-2 to act on a recommendation from the Iowa Communities Assurance Pool during Monday morning's meeting. Local coffee shop helps people pay it forward

GRUNDY CENTER - A free cup of coffee may not seem like a big deal to some people, but when given as a random act of kindness, it can make someone's day.

In an effort to help foster these random acts of kindness, the local coffee shop in town - The Natural Grind - has set up their own system of paying it forward.

When visitors walk into the coffee shop, they're greeted by a sign filled with names, that says "buy a drink for a friend."

If someone's name is on the board, that means they've been bought a free drink by a friend.

Natural Grind owner Natalie Kracht says she was inspired by different businesses who had done similar things to "pay it

The group is excited to kick off the Rock Around the Clock Tower car show and concert series in Grundy Center this week.

"We're very excited to perform in Grundy this Thursday,"

“I thought how cool would it be to do this [at Natural Grind],” Kracht said. “We already had a lot of people who would grab a coffee and leave five dollars for the next person’s drink, so this was just taking it one step further.”

So far, Kracht and her employees have served up around 200 free drinks to people, thanks to the kindness of those in the community.

“I’ve gone through three different name boards because the list of people just keeps growing and growing,” Kracht said. “People are so excited about this and they love to pay it forward.”

From the beginning, Kracht said she wanted her business to be about more than just coffee.

“The whole idea for the shop was purely about making connections and helping others make connections,” she said. “Seeing people connect and gather together brightens my day, and I love it when people come in and see their name on the board because you can just tell that their day has been made.”

Kracht says she’s not planning to leave it at the “free drink for a friend” board, and paying it forward is something she plans to expand on in her business.

With this year’s Felix Grundy Festival coming up quick, Kracht is planning on implanting a similar “pay it forward” idea geared towards youngsters.

Kracht will have wristbands for carnival rides available at her business, but she is also setting up a way for locals to come in and buy a wristband for a youngster who maybe wouldn’t be able to afford one otherwise.

Once the wristband is purchased, it’s put into an envelope and sent over to Operation Threshold, where it will be distributed to a child who wouldn’t otherwise be able to purchase a wristband.

“There are so many people in the community who want to give and help others,” Kracht said. “I’ll take any opportunity I have to support that, and help give back. That’s something I feel very strongly about, and that I want to foster with my business.”

GNB Bank celebrates Community Banking Month by investing in the Community

Each year, April marks Community Banking Month, a nationwide celebration recognizing the many contributions community banks make to their customers and communities. The Community Bankers of Iowa organization states that community banks are part of a statewide network of over 300 community banks representing more than 1,000 communities across Iowa and employing over 5,000 Iowans. Iowa’s community banks have in excess of $3.2 billion dollars in loans to consumers, small businesses, and the agricultural community and community banks pay millions of dollars in taxes to Iowa and their local communities.

GNB Bank celebrated by donating $1000 each to the community betterment projects in our local communities. Customers were asked to simply tell GNB what they’d do with the opportunity to give back and make a difference in their community. Entries were accepted on GNB’s website during April.

The recipients selected from GNB Bank’s Grundy Center location were Joyful Noise Daycare and the City of Grundy Center.

Joyful Noise Daycare is a non-profit that provides child care services to children ages 6-weeks to 5 years old. Their purpose is to provide a nurturing environment that will allow children to ask questions, explore answers, and creatively solve problems as they grow emotionally, physically, creatively, socially, and intellectually. The children at the center enjoy time outdoors but the current playground area is not suitable for toddler-aged children. Becki Shuey, Joyful Noise Daycare Board member, stated in her application that the funds would be used to purchase supplies and fencing for a designated toddler area.

The City of Grundy Center is creating a fourth baseball/softball field at the George E. Wilhelm Sports Complex. The funds will be used for the construction of two new dugouts that will match the 10 ft. x 40 ft. dugouts on the other ballfields. Kristy Sawyer, Grundy Center City Clerk stated, “These dugouts will be used by hundreds of young ball players for many years to come.”

Waterloo woman will appeal Grundy County theft conviction

By ROBERT MAHARRY
The Grundy Register

GRUNDY CENTER- A Waterloo woman who was convicted of felony theft in a Grundy County jury trial earlier this year plans to appeal the decision to the Iowa Supreme Court, according to recently filed documents.

Shawn Marie Eastman-Adams, now 46 years old, was arrested in 2018 and charged with stealing a John Deere lawn tractor, a horse buggy, a wood chipper, tools and a stock trailer from a residence west of Dike near The Mill between December 4 and December 7, 2017.

In April, a jury found her guilty of Second Degree Theft, a Class D felony with an enhancement for habitual offender status, and she was sentenced to five years in prison with a three-year mandatory minimum. The total value of the stolen items is valued at betwe

About a month later, Eastman-Adams’s attorney, Nina Forcier, filed a motion for an arrest of judgment and a new trial, arguing that “the verdict was contrary to law and evidence presented in this case” and that “no judgment can be pronounced on the whole record given the erroneous evidentiary rulings of the court,” and it has since been denied.

On June 12, Forcier filed a notice of appeal with the state Supreme Court, but the document does not indicate the ground on which she is appealing the ruling. Forcier could not be immediately reached for comment.

Eastman-Adams, also known as Shawn Marie Tomkins, is still awaiting a trial in Black Hawk County on charges that she lied about medical conditions (including a kidney transplant and tumors) in order to secure over $50,000 from a Waterloo couple and then made false accusations that her child was molested after her scam was uncovered.

GC Council discusses design guidelines for local businesses

By MICHAELA KENDALL
The Grundy Register

GRUNDY CENTER - With the recent facade improvement project sprucing up downtown Grundy Center, the local City Council is making an effort to establish a more aesthetically cohesive business district.

With the Main Street area being the face of Grundy Center, the council noted the importance of keeping a cohesive look to the area, while preserving the historic charm of the district.

During their meeting on Monday night, the council discussed possible design guidelines for local businesses, specifically focusing on the exterior of the buildings including signage, awnings and other features.

Representatives of the Grundy Center Chamber-Main Street organization were present at the meeting to offer their support and help with the design guidelines.

"The goal is not to add to the burden of business and property owners, but to help preserve and protect the investment the city and property owners are making in the community to improve the look, property values and livability of the area," said GC Chamber-Main Street Director Lisa Bienfang. "We see this as a way to protect your investment, and a way for us to be a resource to business owners and provide them with resources, ideas and feedback on possible designs."

The Grundy Center City Council discussed possible design guidelines for local business and property owners seeking public funding for improvement projects. The design guidelines would advise on the exteriors of the building, such as signage, awnings and other features. (Grundy Register file photo)

Council members agreed that they wouldn't want to force any design guidelines on business and property owners who aren't seeking public funding for improvements, but that they thought having a design committee to offer advice and consultations to the business and property owners would be beneficial.

If a business or property owner is seeking public funding from the federal, state or local level, though, a city-appointed design committee would make recommendations which would ultimately be approved or not approved by the city. At the local level, this would consist of business or property owners applying for a BIG grant or TIF funding.

GC Chamber-Main Street board member Katie Lewis added that many cities around the area, such as Cedar Falls, have design guidelines for their downtown business districts.

"A lot of cities, like Cedar Falls for example, have rules like this in place," she said. "We want to be a progressive city, so that's why we developed some of these guidelines and wanted to bring them to the council's attention, because it's a good start. Even if it's not an ordinance it's a good thing for people to have at least to look at. We have designers and local experts who are willing to help and offer advice."

Council members agreed that they thought it would be fair to require businesses and property owners seeking public funding to adhere to design guidelines, and to at least require a design consultation for those looking to make improvements without public funding - though in that case the design committee would serve only in an advisory role, and the ultimate decision on improvements would be left to the business or property owner, as long as they meet the building permit standards.

The council asked City Attorney Seth Schroeder to work on adding those additions into the ordinance for review.

Local HAM radio group

to host meet up

Iowa Wireless Amateur Radio Network (IWARN) is a group of amateur radio operators or "hams" from Butler, Franklin, Hardin, Grundy, Marshall and Tama Counties (<http://www.iowawarn.net/>). The group meets the first Thursday of the month at the Grundy Center Hospital to plan for emergency communications and to talk to people with the same hobby.

Every summer, the Amateur Radio Relay League (ARRL) holds it's Field Day the fourth weekend in June. Field Day is the annual "shakedown run" for the ARRL's National Field Organization to test and improve amateur-radio operator's emergency communication skills and portable amateur radio stations. The group sets up a portable ham radio operation and attempt to make contact with as many other stations as possible in a 24 hour period. Field Day is also a way for hams to get together and have some fun. This is the perfect opportunity or hams in rural counties to meet each other.

This year, Field Day will be from 1 pm June 22nd until 1 pm on June 23rd. The public is invited to visit the site at The Mill at the intersection of Hwy 14 & Hwy 20 from 1-4pm on June 23rd. During this time, there will be stations on the air transmitting to other people all over the world, an information table with lots of great information about radio and even a kid's activity for them to learn more about Morse Code.

Please forward any questions to Jennifer Strohbehn, KE0BIT, the Public Information Officer for IWARN at ke0bit@arrl.net with the removal—the three middle trees on the west lawn between the corners, two on the south lawn and one closer to the courthouse on the west lawn—was deadlocked at 2-2, with he and Heidi Nederhoff voting in favor and Smith and Chuck Bakker voting against it. Board Chairman Mark Schilfroth paused and contemplated before ultimately siding with the 'ayes.'

The county will now seek quotes for tree removal services, and there is no definitive timetable on when a crew will begin work. Ross, who said he understood Smith's concerns, nonetheless cited the decision as a practical one.

"Everything has to come to an end, and we need to think about the future," he said.

Butler-Grundy Development Alliance Director Jeff Kolb attended the meeting to speak in favor of a proposal to adopt an industrial property tax credits program, citing it as another tool, alongside Tax Increment Financing (TIF) and urban renewal districts, which will encourage economic growth in Grundy County.

Unlike those programs, however, the industrial property tax credits are easier to obtain with less criteria and no need to "hire a Des Moines attorney," as one supervisor put it.

"It's a good way to show that the county wants to encourage developments without going through a lot of hurdles," Kolb said. "It's a very simple easy way to show that you want to participate."

The board eventually voted unanimously to approve the program and move to a third reading so that it could be enacted immediately. Later, Kolb reported that he is working with several small business owners and plans to get "aggressive" in marketing the Grundy County Industrial Park north of Grundy Center. Despite some recent rumblings, Kolb did not have any news on the old Pamida building on the west side of Grundy Center, but the owner does plan to subdivide the facility.

Assistant County Engineer Steve Cox provided an update on the bridge situation and how a recent change in state law could result in load signs forbidding axles over 25,000 pounds from crossing. He added that at least 15 bridges in Grundy County would soon have signs indicating a 40-ton limit or one-lane traffic for semi trucks.

"They passed (the law) without any consultation of engineering or how bridges have been designed in the last 40 years," Cox said. "You're going to potentially have new bridges with signs on them."

The board voted unanimously to authorize a consulting contract with Calhoun Burns Associates of Des Moines on several bridge repair and potential replacement projects.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, the board:

- Approved contracts for Regional Coordinator of Disability Services Todd Rickert and Grundy County Service Coordinator Daphne Schlamp.

BCLUW will phase out high school class ranking

By ROBERT MAHARRY
The Grundy Register

CONRAD- In conjunction with a wider trend around the state and the country, BCLUW will phase out class rankings beginning with next year's incoming freshmen.

BJ Hoffman, who serves as a Hardin County supervisor and has a son attending BCLUW, previously spoke before the school board about why he believes the ranking is obsolete and how it has hampered students seeking financial aid, and he wrote the board another letter before its monthly meeting last Thursday. Iowa's regents' universities are abandoning the system and moving toward admissions processes that prioritize grade point average, community service and SAT and ACT scores.

Superintendent Ben Petty explained that several large high schools (including those in Ames, Cedar Falls and Iowa City) have already done away with class rank as the consensus shifts toward "standards-based learning" and more holistic criteria.

Under the motion that passed by a 4-0 vote (Adam Probasco, Eric Engle and Todd Pekarek were absent), incoming freshmen at BCLUW will no longer be ranked according to their academic performance, but the sophomore, junior and senior classes will still operate under the current system until they graduate.

Local engineer Larry Olson stopped by to discuss plans for repairing or replacing the 50-year-old cupola at the high school gym, and he reported that his preferred method would include installing a new unit with a curb, fan and hoods as a means of preventing leaks and ensuring proper ventilation. A separate sketch received from Garling Construction calls for fabricating and installing louver protections for ventilation.

A complete replacement would cost around $38,455 ($7,710 for general construction, $3,000 for crane rental, $3,250 for electrical, $13,225 for mechanical and $11,270 for temperature controls) plus $5,000 for design fees, compared to just under $10,000 for the Garling proposal.

"If we're going to spend something, let's do the right thing," Olson said.

Board member LJ Kopsa asked about the chances that the same problems would persist without generating new airflow through a passive intake system. Eventually, the board voted 4-0 to move forward with a plan to seek quotes for the full replacement, and the project will not need to be put out for public bidding because it falls under that threshold. Olson added, however, that area roofers are still "buried" due to last summer's Marshalltown tornado.

Band Director David Bartling asked the board for a loan to assist with repairs on the recently purchased grand piano, and a motion was later approved to provide $14,840 to move forward. The purchase of the piano itself was financed exclusively through private donations and grants.

Although no official action was taken, board member Brian Feldpausch raised the question of increasing concession stand prices to bring them more in line with other area school districts—especially after business manager Paula Benson mentioned the ever-rising cost of paying umpires for baseball and softball games. The board approved a transfer of $2,800 from the referee fund back to concessions to buy food before the fall season.

During positive sharing, High School Principal Kristyn Kell touted the rousing success of the J-Term classes (chronicled in last week's Grundy Register), and she hopes that they will become a yearly tradition at BCLUW.

"I love seeing (the students') passion for it," she said.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, the board:

- Approved the purchase of new heating and cooling controls at a cost of $12,044.85.

- Approved bread and milk bids.

- Approved the BCLUW safety plan.

- Approved the following personnel changes: hiring Haley Schneiderman as a third grade teacher, amending Jennifer Frank's contract from half-time to full-time (half transitional kindergarten and half Title I), increasing Sharon Borgman's contract from half-time to full-time for special education, and offering Brennan Acton a contract as a co-advisor for student council for the upcoming school year.

- Approved the purchase of 125 Chromebooks for grades 2-4 at a cost of $39,607.50.

- Approved the final reading of an assistance animals policy.

Conrad council accepts water main loop bid

By ROBERT MAHARRY
The Grundy Register

CONRAD- The Conrad city council accepted a $179,405 water main looping bid from Vieth Construction of Cedar Falls during its regular meeting last Thursday night.

The city received two bids total (the other came from Hatch Grading and Contracting of Dysart), and the low bid came in well under the engineer's estimate ($220,000). Vieth will install an eight-inch loop on the south side of town. After a brief public hearing, the council voted unanimously to accept the bid.

Councilman Todd Schnathorst reported that he recently met with a developer from the Waterloo-Cedar Falls area and had a productive conversation about the plans to develop lots on Main Street and Lillian on the north side of town across the street from the swimming pool. So far, plans have estimated the number of new lots at anywhere from 26 to 40 total.

Eventually, the council voted unanimously to approve an engineering agreement with Clapsaddle-Garber Associates (CGA).

Earlier in the meeting, the council approved a budget amendment that accounts for increases in snow removal, EMS, EMT training, zoning and capital projects costs, with a total increase of $249,000 in revenue and $226,000 in expenditures.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, the council:

- Approved a $350,000 loan agreement with GNB Bank with a 3.875 percent fixed interest rate.

- Approved the transfer of $21,900 from the employee benefit fund to the general fund and $3,703.83 from the sanitary sewer fund to the general fund.

- Approved a second reading of the ordinance raising water and sewer rates.

- Approved giving the Black Dirt Days committee $93 from the bingo proceeds.

- Approved the following appointments: Amy Drummer and Kristyn Kell to the library board and Julie Towne to the park board.

Memory Lane
A look back through The Grundy Register
Compiled by Michaela Kendall

10 Years Ago This Week - 2009

Since 1986, the Center Theatre in Grundy Center has been bringing first-run movies to patrons of all ages for only 99 cents.

25 Years Ago This Week - 1994

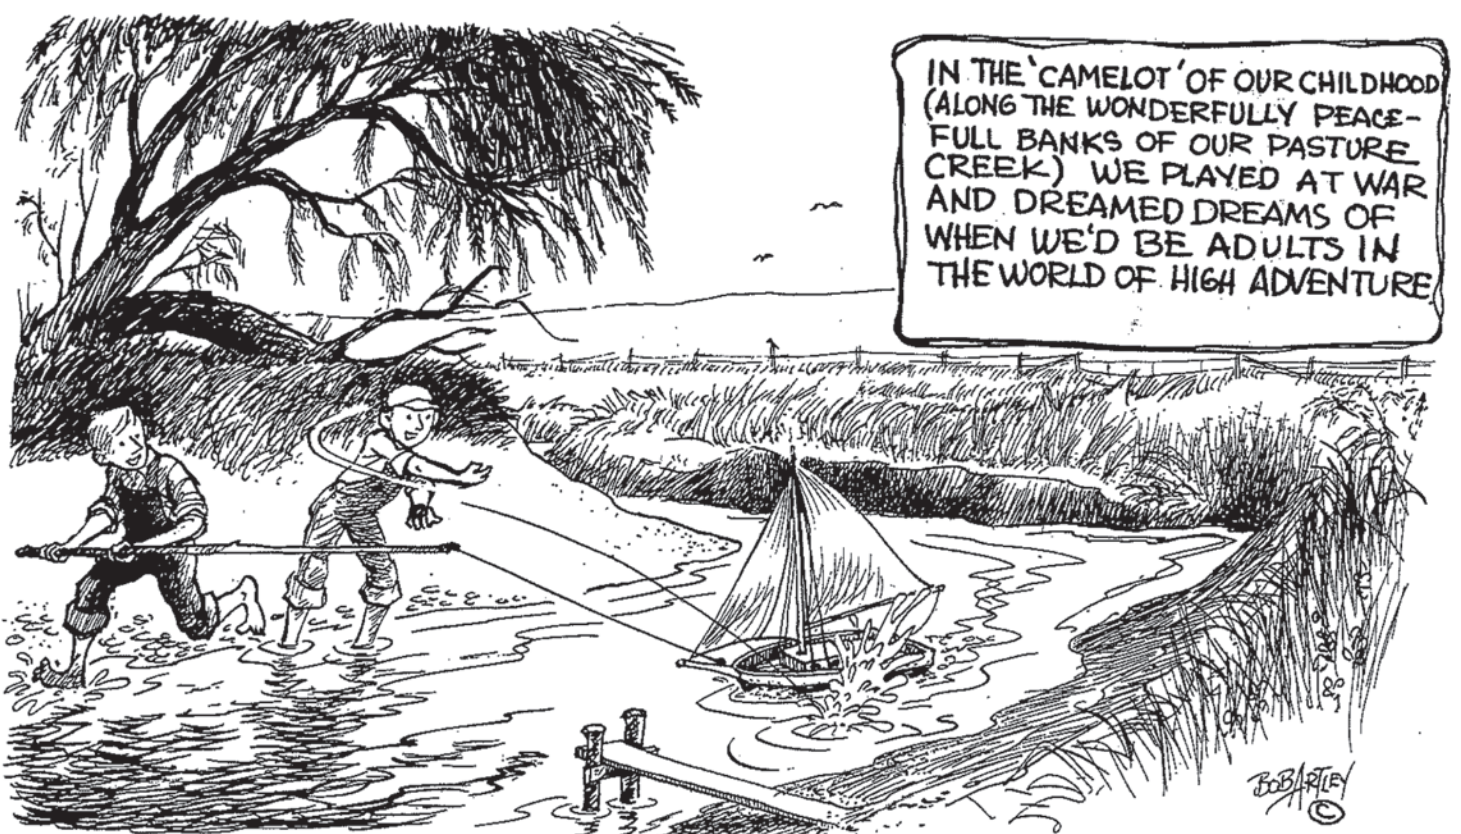

Concern over the possible loss of their high school prompted 65 to 75 residents of Wellsburg and Steamboat Rock to attend a public hearing Monday night in Wellsburg.

50 Years Ago This Week - 1969

Some students have jobs this summer, but there are 463 attending summer school at Grundy Center. This year's program has an increase of 107 over last year and includes several new courses on the curriculum.

75 Years Ago This Week - 1944

Lester Carlin, Grundy county soldier, and two others shot down an estimated 50 enemy soldiers in France, according to a dispatch released to the press and the radio on Tuesday.

Memories Of A Former Kid. MugWump Marketing (507) 645-7999

My Three Cents Worth
The last rockin' daddy in the U.S.A.

For all intents and purposes, I've given up on new music in the last few years. I don't consider it an "Old/young man yells at cloud" reaction to the trends of the day—I enjoy "Old Town Road" as much as the next guy—but does anyone within sniffing distance of the mainstream write albums anymore?

By ROB MAHARRY

unholy amalgamation of 80s hair metal, bad hip-hop and modern soft pop. Rap is the only creative frontier left, it seems, and even with the emergence of once in a generation voices like Kanye and Kendrick Lamar, its ubiquity has left a massive void in the hearts of fans who still love guitars, drums and live instruments.

All that said, who's going to swoop in and save disaffected souls like me with the surprise masterpiece of 2019? As it turns out, it's none other than the Boss himself.

In the last decade or so, even the legends of the golden age of popular music have by and large become boring relics. Bob Dylan lost whatever was left of his singing voice and wastes albums mauling Sinatra covers. The Stones play the hits and play them well, but the chances we'll ever get another new album are slim to none.

But Bruce Springsteen, perhaps due to the fact that he never ruined himself with drugs and booze the way his contemporaries did, never rests. His latest, "Western Stars," is a complete offering with wonderful singles, a tribute to the golden age of country pop (the best song, "Hello Sunshine," directly recalls the shuffle beat from Glen Campbell's version of "Gentle on My Mind") with a more restrained, reflective take on the working man bravado we've come to expect over the years.

"Western Stars" is more country than Lee Brice, Thomas Rhett and Dan+Shay, and I'm not sure if that's an affirmation of Springsteen or a sad commentary on the current state of the genre. Perhaps both.

After the more overtly political fare in his last two albums (especially the anti-Wall Street polemic "Wrecking Ball"), he's chosen to turn his focus to aging, offering retrospectives that feel like companion pieces to earlier tales of working class desperation in his classics—"Born to Run," "Darkness on the Edge of Town," "Promised Land," and "The River," to name a few.

The stories are vintage Hollywood, vintage Old West and vintage Bruce: a B-movie stuntman reflects on aging in "Drive Fast," a desperate hobo tries to find his way in "Hitch Hikin'."

If Springsteen keeps it up, he may put out an experimental electro-pop opera about life on Mars when he's 90. In lesser hands, I'd consider that some sort of sick joke, but hey, it's the Boss. I'll give it a chance.

"Western Stars" is not Bruce Springsteen's best album, but for my money, it's the best album of 2019 so far.

Grassley Q & A: Elder Abuse

Question: How did stopping elder abuse become one of your priorities in Congress?

Answer: Close-knit families and communities across Iowa are enriched by the contributions and life experiences of older citizens. Unfortunately, some members of society don't treat their elders with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I've used my legislative and oversight authority to examine what society and the federal government can do better to ensure older Americans live with dignity and security.

Many years ago, I convened congressional hearings in the Senate Special Committee on Aging that led to my policy focus on standards of care in our nation's nursing homes.

As an aging society, we can't allow victimization to climb. World Elder Abuse Awareness Day is Saturday, June 15. This annual outreach effort gives advocates the opportunity to turn up the volume on an important message for all Americans.

Question: What are potential signs of elder abuse or neglect?

Answer: Social isolation is one risk factor for victimization among older adults. For those who are able to volunteer, consider donating time and talent with an assisted living or nursing home facility to help seniors eat their meals, provide companionship, or read and participate with recreation activities.

Question: Where should Iowans look to seek assistance for a loved one or report potential abuse?

Answer: Iowans looking for social services for older citizens may check the Eldercare Locator administered by the U.S. Administration on Aging, or call (800) 677-1116.

Faust is awarded Bachelor's Degree from Caldwell University

Stephanie Faust of Grundy Center was posthumously awarded a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing from Caldwell University in Caldwell, New Jersey, this spring.

Stephanie graduated from Grundy Center High School in 2015 and went on to attend Indian Hills Community College in Ottumwa, where she played soccer and earned an Associate of Arts degree in General Studies. While playing soccer at Indian Hills, she led her soccer team as Captain. After two years at Indian Hills, she was awarded a scholarship to play soccer for Caldwell University in Caldwell, New Jersey, where she was also named Captain of her team.

In her spare time between school and soccer, Stephanie earned her certificate as a personal trainer and worked part time training in New Jersey.

After Stephanie passed away in June of 2018, her friends, teammates, instructors, coaches and classmates at Caldwell University held a memorial service for her in the fall, to remember her for the driven, passionate and shining person she was. This spring, her family received word from the President of Caldwell University, letting them know that the school had awarded her a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing.

Caldwell University's President contacted Stephanie's parents, Steve and Connie Faust, to let them know that the school had petitioned successfully to present them with a degree for Stephanie because her teammates, coaches, friends and classmates thought so highly of her and the impact she made during her time at Caldwell.

Francis "Pete" Peterson

Having lived a long, friendly, and giving life, Francis "Pete" August Peterson passed away June 10, 2019, at Trinity Center at Luther Park in Des Moines. The family will be holding a celebration of life later in the summer. His ashes will be interred at Iowa Veteran's Cemetery in Van Meter, IA and scattered back home in northern Michigan. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in his name to the V Foundation for Cancer Research at V.org. Condolences may be expressed at www.HamiltonsFuneralHome.com.

Born May 12, 1932, in Daggett, Michigan to Earl and Mary Peterson, Pete graduated from Michigan State University in 1954, with a degree in Agricultural Engineering. He served in the Air Force and subsequently the Iowa Air Guard before being honorably discharged as a Captain in 1964.

On September 15, 1956, Pete married Marva Lou Doughty, his wife of 62 years, in Houston, TX. He had a long career in engineering, working for John Deere in Ankeny, Badger Northland in Wisconsin, Hinson in Waterloo, and ultimately retiring from Case-IH in Clarendon Hills, IL in 1997.

Pete and Marva settled for many years on an acreage in rural Parkersburg where they raised their four boys and enjoyed attending their sporting events and other activities. This is also where they returned after his retirement. He enjoyed tending their large vegetable garden, spending time on the farm, planting trees, raising bees, walking his dogs, remodeling the house, playing cards, and adding more fuel to the burn pile! He especially enjoyed when his children and grandchildren would return for Christmas and for his annual Fourth of July family barbecue to eat brats and sweet corn and set off illegal fireworks.

Pete had a kind heart, a gentle soul, and a bad singing voice, which he was not afraid to use. He lived in the moment, a strong work ethic, and a witty sense of humor, all of which he passed on to his boys.

He is survived by his wife, Marva; his sons, Jim of Shawnee, KS, Scott (Susan) of Rogers, MN, David (Patty) of Avondale, PA, and Kerry (Jennifer) of Des Moines, and his grandchildren, Alex (Lauren), Zachary, Kaycee, Caitlin, and Augie.

He was preceded in death by his father, Earl; his mother, Mary; his sister, Jeanne Bastien; his brother-in-law, James Bastien; and his sister, Luella.

Richard Waugh

Richard Edward Waugh, 80, of Conrad passed away on June 13, 2019, at Grundy County Memorial Hospital in Grundy Center. Memorial visitation will be held on Friday, June 21 from 12:00 p.m. until time of Masonic service 2:00 p.m. at Abels Funeral and Cremation Service, Engelkes Chapel in Grundy Center, conducted by the Marshall Lodge 108 AF & AM. Inurnment will follow at the Conrad Cemetery with Military Honors conducted by the Conrad American Legion Post 681. Memorials may be directed to the family, to later donate to local causes in Richard's memory. Online condolences may be made by visiting www.abelsfuneralhomes.com.

Richard was born in the Conrad area, on November 21, 1938. He was the son of Currie and Margery (Richards) Waugh. He was raised in the Conrad area and graduated from Conrad High School in the class of 1957. Richard was married to Linda Asher and together they had two sons Sean (deceased 1985) and Kyle; they later divorced.

Richard enlisted in the United States Navy in September of 1957, he began his career as an Engineman during which time he served on the icebreaker USS Staten Island AGB-5 during Operation Deepfreeze 4 to resupply the scientific stations in Antarctica. He then enlisted in the United States Air Force where he was trained in aviation electronics, skills he took back with him when he re-enlisted into the Navy in 1966. He served multiple tours in the Navy, which included the USS Oriskany CVA-34 operating off the coast of Vietnam and NAS Millington; where he earned his private pilot's license. His last posting was NAS Guantanamo Bay where he retired in 1977 and returned to Iowa.

Upon his return to Iowa he settled back onto the family farm and began his career in 1978 with Northwestern Bell which later became US West; he retired from US West in February of 1999. After retirement he continued to remain active with many projects. Richard was very active in many Veteran's and Charity Organizations. He also enjoyed tinkering with vehicles.

Richard is survived by his son Kyle; grandchildren Kristos and Melissa; brother Roger; sister and Jean; and many other family members and friends.

Dorothea Mae Kruger was born on November 5, 1928, to her parents William and Ruth (Mackenburg) Woodard in Cresco. She attended Cresco High School, graduating with the class of 1946. Dorothea was united in marriage to Orlen Albert Kruger on April 22, 1951, in Cresco. Shortly after getting married, both Dorothea and Orlen moved to Fern where Orlen and his father opened Kruger and Sons grocery store. Dorothea and Orlen were blessed with three sons Steve, Lynn, and Daryl. Dorothea cared for the children and later worked for the University of Northern Iowa as a housekeeper, until retiring at 61.

Dorothea loved her flower and vegetable gardens. She tended to her garden, canning her hard work. Dorothea and Orlen traveled frequently, visiting notable places such as Florida, Salt Lake, and Denver. She also enjoyed quilting, fishing, and following around Orlen's quartet, the "Laymen Quartet". Dorothea was a member of Colfax Presbyterian Church and belonged to the Colfax Presbyterian Women's Group.

Dorothea is survived by her loving sons Steve (Sheila) Kruger of New Hartford, Lynn Kruger of Stout, and Daryl Kruger of Highland Ranch, CO; grandchildren Megan (Josh) Dugan of Phoenix, AZ, Ryan (Shalee) Kruger of Garber, IA, Jesse Kruger of Woodridge, IL, Haley (David) Oswald of Cedar Falls, Kelsey Kruger of Davenport, Katelyn (Trey) Allison of Scottsbluff, NE, and Daniel Kruger of Denver, CO; six great-grandchildren; brothers Paul (Jackie) Woodard, of West Union, and David Woodard of Boone.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; infant daughter Judy Ann; and sister Janice Werger.

Trees and Concrete

The week was busy for big equipment. At the Dike New Hartford High School, several trees were removed. In one day, Weber takes down the trees, and the next they are gone. Three strong young men helped make the removal and clean up happen. South of Main Street at the Co-op, piles of concrete were turned to usable road rock. The concrete didn't disappear as fast as the trees. The sound of the grinding machine was heard for during the day for several weeks. Landus Cooperative has stated the ground rock will be used on their private property. It was a clean up job well done.

About town

A Father's Day gathering happened at the home of Charles Paige. In attendance for the morning brunch were Joel and Chris Paige of Hubbard, Tom Emmett of Indiana, Amber and Ava Paige of Hubbard, Suzan Bienfang of Dike and Diane Paige from upstairs. Pancakes, sausage, fruit, scrambled eggs, cinnamon rolls were served and enjoyed with coffee and juice.

It was a time of sharing family stories and talking about another birthday as Charles will turn 94 on the 19 of June.

The family of Richard Woodley would like to extend our sincere thanks to all the friends and relatives who sent cards, memorial donations and flowers, brought food to our home and showed us such love and caring support in the loss of our husband and father. It is all very much appreciated. Nancy Woodley

Love and Joy

"A joyful heart is the normal result of a heart overflowing with love."
Mother Teresa

Joy is the natural result of a heart overflowing with love. When we love and are simultaneously loved in return, we are filled with joy. The Bible tells us over and over again that God loves us and cares for us like a nurturing parent. That is truly the Good News of the Bible. Perhaps the best news is that God loves us unconditionally and even when we sin. He isn't angry so much as disappointed. When we meet difficulties in life, we should meet them with a heart overflowing with joy. When someone calls you needing help, instead of grumbling about having to help someone, we should cherish the opportunity to help them and share God's love. Giving away your money may also be something you don't relish doing, but consider Paul's advice to the Corinthians: "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." (2 Corinthians 9:7 NIV) Love is not a finite commodity that we can run out of. The more that we love, the more love we have to give. When loving parents have children, they don't cease to love each other, but on the contrary their love for their children draws them closer to one another. So love generously, and joyfully, and give your love to everyone you meet, freely and cheerfully.

-Christopher Simon

2018 WATER QUALITY REPORT for the CITY OF GRUNDY CENTER

The City of Grundy Center strives to provide you with a safe, dependable supply of drinking water that is in compliance with the guidelines established by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). This report contains important information regarding the water quality in our water system. The City of Grundy Center currently purchases its water through a bulk connection with Iowa Regional Utilities Association (IRUA). The Marshalltown Water Works supplies the water which is pumped from nine deep wells located on the north side of the Iowa River drawing from the Mississippi and Pleistocene Aquifers. Our water quality testing shows the following results:

Contaminant	MCL (MCLG)	Compliance		Year Tested	Violation	Source
		Type	Result (Range)
City of Grundy Center Distribution System
Copper (ppm)	AL=1.3 (1.3)	90 <sup>b</sup>	0.0395 (0.0027 - 0.0814)	2018	No	Corrosion of plumbing systems; Erosion of natural deposits; Leaching from wood preservatives.
Lead (ppb)	AL=15 (0)	90 <sup>b</sup>	4.30 (ND - 5.0)	2018	No	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; Erosion of natural deposits.
Chlorine (ppm)	MRDL=4.0 (MRDLG=4.0)	RAA	1.8 (1.27 - 1.97)	2018	No	Water additive used to control microbes.
Water Supplied by Marshalltown Water Works
Fluoride (ppm)	4 (4)	RAA	0.7 (0.6 - 0.8)	2018	No	Water additive which promotes strong teeth; Erosion of natural deposits; Discharge from fertilizer and aluminum factories.
Sodium (ppm)	N/A (N/A)	SGL	14	2016	No	Erosion of natural deposits; Added to water during the treatment process.

The EPA requires monitoring of over 80 drinking water contaminants. Those listed above are the only contaminants detected in your drinking water. For questions regarding this information, please contact Dan Bangasser, Public Works Director at (319) 825-6118. Decisions regarding the water system are made at the Grundy Center Council meetings, which are held on the first and third Mondays at 6:30 p.m. at the Grundy Center City Hall Council Chambers; 703 F Avenue, Suite 2; Grundy Center, Iowa and are open to the public.

DEFINITIONS

- Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) – The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
- Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG) – The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
- ppb – parts per billion.
- ppm – parts per million.
- N/A – Not applicable
- ND – Not detected
- RAA – Running Annual Average
- Action Level (AL) – The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
- Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level Goal (MRDLG) – The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.
- Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level (MRDL) – The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.
- RTRC – Revised Total Coliform Rule
- SGL – Single Sample Result
- Treatment Technique (TT) – A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

GENERAL INFORMATION

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. Your water supply is monitored on a regular basis to assure the water is a safe, dependable supply. Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water posed a health risk. More information about contaminants or potential health effects can be obtained by calling the EPA's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791). If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. The City of Grundy Center is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your drinking water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791) or at http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead. Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791). The most common drinking water treatment is disinfection. Disinfection is considered to be the primary mechanism to kill bacteria and other germs to prevent the spread of waterborne diseases. Chlorine is the most widely used disinfectant. Disinfectants combine with organic and inorganic matter present in water to form chemicals called disinfectant by-products. EPA sets standards for controlling the levels of disinfectants and disinfectant by-products in drinking water. SOURCE WATER ASSESSMENT INFORMATION The Marshalltown Water Works obtains its source water from the Mississippian and Pleistocene aquifers. The Mississippian and Pleistocene aquifers were determined to be susceptible to contamination because the characteristics of the aquifers and overlying materials allow contaminants to move through the aquifers fairly quickly. The wells will be susceptible to activities such as leaking underground storage tanks, underground storage tanks, and hazardous waste generators. A detailed evaluation of your source water was completed by the IDNR, and is available from Iowa Regional Utilities Association at (641) 792-7011. OTHER INFORMATION The City of Grundy Center is making every effort to protect the water system from potential security threats. You, as customers, can also help. If you see any suspicious activity near any part of the water system, please contact us at (319) 825-6118 or the local police/sheriff department. We appreciate your assistance in protecting the water system. GR25-1

Last Monday's softball: BCLUW's Ashton fends off Trojans

By JAKE RYDER

CONRAD – A single run scored in the first inning was enough for the BCLUW softball team against West Marshall, with Comet pitcher Bailey Ashton striking out 15 in a 1-0 win against the Trojans.

Ashton surrendered one walk and two hits in seven innings pitched. The Trojans had runners at 1st and 2nd base in the top of the seventh inning with two outs, but Ashton got a strikeout to end the threat and end the game.

BCLUW's only run of the game came following a Kiersten Kruse double. Kruse stole third during Olivia Hughes' at-bat and Hughes brought Kruse home on a sacrifice bunt.

West Marshall's other scoring opportunity came in the top of the fifth inning after a two-out double, but another Ashton strikeout ended the half-inning.

D-NH and the Pirates traded the lead in Game 1 several times, with the biggest swing coming in the sixth inning. In the top half, Hudson scored four runs to take a 6-4 lead, only for the Wolverines to respond with three in the bottom half of the frame.

From there, pitcher Abby Sohn and the D-NH defense behind her got the three outs to end the first game. Alysa Fettkether had three hits and three RBI for the Wolverines, with Malea Neuroth driving in a couple runs and Lydia Huntington adding three hits with a double.

Hudson jumped ahead 4-3 after the top of the fourth in Game 2, but the Wolverines went back in front 5-4 after five innings and got a big five-run inning in the following inning to give Sohn some wiggle room.

The Pirates answered with two runs in the seventh, coming up short on the attempted rally.

Taylor Kvale collected two RBI with a double and also scored twice herself. Alysa Fettkether, Malea Neuroth and Addy Sohn all had two hits each.

Cougars hit well in rout of Spartans

ACKLEY – Four different AGWSR batters collected two hits in a 10-0, five-inning victory for the Cougars against Grundy Center.

Taryan Barrick made her debut in the Cougar lineup this summer with two hits and two RBI. Carrinton Hunt, Alyssa Hames and Ali Gerbracht all added two hits and one RBI each.

Barrick contributed two innings of relief for starter Rachel Sicard, allowing no runs on two hits with three strikeouts.

Five walks issued by Sicard allowed Grundy Center to put plenty of runners on, but eight Spartans were left on base, unable to get GC on the board.

Mustangs jump on Rebels early

GLADBROOK – The state-ranked East Marshall squad racked up 12 runs on 11 hits to bring a quick end to an NICL West game with Gladbrook-Reinbeck, a 12-0 final in three innings.

Juliana Arifi drove in four runs for the Mustangs, ranked 10th in Class 2A and winners of eight straight after the win over G-R.

East Marshall pitcher Kodie Hoskey struck out all nine Rebel batters she faced, leading to a fourth-consecutive defeat for the Rebels.

Tuesday's softball: Cougar rally beats Newman

By KRISTI NIXON
Mid-America Publishing

ACKLEY – Taryan Barrick wasn't ready for the news she'd been cleared to play softball again.

"I didn't expect to get cleared this fast," Barrick said. "(I expected) more toward the end of the season, honestly."

She said she also checked with her physical therapist to be sure her right knee, of which she had surgery shortly before basketball season, was okay to go. Barrick was playing fall softball when she injured it. The state runner-up pitcher and Simpson College-bound ace has a lot riding on her future.

A little rust, a little fatigue showed in her first start in the circle for the Cougars since the Class 1A state title game on July 19, 2018 as she gave up eight hits, four walks, but struck out 10 in a 9-5 win against Mason City Newman, in what turned out to be the only game played at Class 1A No. 6 AGWSR's home tournament on Tuesday, June 11.

"I wasn't planning on pitching that much," Barrick said, "but they (co-coaches Scott O'Brien and Brenda Drake) kept asking if I felt okay and I said, 'Yeah, I feel fine.'"

"O'Brien's a little protective in a way. He doesn't want me to do anything else to hurt it, he's worried about my mom, too; mom and him are both protective."

Barrick's knee had plenty of ice on the front and back after AGWSR's win over the Knights in which she went all six innings (via the time limit).

"I have to do it afterwards," Barrick said of the ice packs. "It doesn't feel too bad."

But it had to kill her a little to sit by the first three weeks of the season.

"It was tough, but I kind of said, 'it is what it is, it's going to be this way for a little bit, possibly for the rest of the season,'" Barrick said. "So, also it is the way it is now."

In her first game back as a starter, Barrick played first base and then pitched two innings in a rout of Grundy Center on June 10.

Neither Barrick nor Drake anticipated her to throw all six innings against the Knights.

"She made it a little hard on herself," Drake said. "But it's up to her. If she starts feeling uncomfortable, that's when we want to...we had Rachel (Sicard, who has handled the starting pitching) warmed up and ready to go."

Barrick's eye for the ball in the batter's box hasn't suffered. She walked twice against Newman and then had an RBI single in the Cougars' eight-run rally in the fifth against Newman.

"Hitting-wise, we're not too worried about it," Drake said. "Keeping an eye on it, we don't want to push her there, either. Normally, she would have had a double (on her hit)."

"It's just tougher if she plays first base because you can only sub her once, well twice and then she's gone (from the game). It's tougher when she plays first."

Barrick said she was able to swing the bat without using her legs.

"I've been able to swing for a while," Barrick said, "but the more I used my upper body, the more I was able to bring everything else around, too. I eased my way into it and I'm actually shocked I'm doing so well with my hands at the moment."

Both Drake and Barrick said she is currently on a pitching limit and had no plans to pitch in the game against Belmond-Klemme that rain postponed. The Newman and B-K game halted in the third inning because of rain/field conditions.

"I was going to keep going until I didn't feel well," Barrick said. "Everything is sore but my knee. My quads are tight, my shoulders are tight from pitching, otherwise everything is (feeling) really well."

Drake added, "We were watching the pitch count; we didn't want her to over-do it and it all depends on how she feels. It helped when we got a lead there, too. It's going to be a slow go yet."

And AGWSR improved to 11-3 with the win over Newman with six straight hits, a walk and then two more hits that brought in the eight runs in the fifth.

"We got our bats going," Drake said. "We actually struggle with that with slow pitches, we're out front so far. When you're out front, you can only get ground balls or pop it up."

For now, Drake says they are going to take things one game at a time with Barrick.

"Game-by-game, see how it goes and how she goes," Drake said.

Spartans can't catch up with Cadets

IOWA FALLS – Early runs for Iowa Falls-Alden put Grundy Center in an ultimately insurmountable hole, with the Spartans coming up short 6-3 in non-league road action.

The Spartan scoring started in the second inning on an RBI double from Maddie McMartin that brought Brooke Flater home. Grundy Center briefly had the game tied at 2-2 after the top of the third, with a run scoring on a Cadet error off a ball put into play by Flater.

IF-A proceeded to build a three-run lead before the Spartans struck again on another Cadet error, scoring Jessica Ayers on a ball put into play by McMartin.

Megan Beck reached on a two-out walk in the top of the seventh inning but a groundout ended the game in favor of the Cadets.

Grundy Center starter Emma Beck struck out three with one walk and three earned runs allowed on seven hits with six innings in the circle. The Cadets first two runs scored in the bottom of the first on a pair of errors. Grace Renaud added a home run for the home team.

Rebels score early but Tigers overwhelm

ELDORA – South Hardin answered Gladbrook-Reinbeck's early offense and piled it on in a 14-2 win over the Rebels in three innings.

Reagan Skovgard had a run batted in and Skovgard and Emily Else crossed home plate in the first inning for an early 2-0 lead, only for the Tigers to tie the game in the bottom half of the inning, score four more in the second and end the game early with eight runs in the bottom of the third.

South Hardin totaled 12 hits off G-R pitcher Rachel Cooley, including four extra-base hits.

REINBECK – Tyler and Nick Tscherter accounted for three extra-base hits and six runs batted in as Gladbrook-Reinbeck defeated Sumner-Fredricksburg, 10-0, in six innings.

William Kiburis was the night's winning pitcher, limiting the Cougars to two hits and issuing one walk.

G-R collected 12 total hits, with five different individuals collecting two hits each, and the Rebels scored five runs in the bottom of the sixth to end the game early. Rebel junior Tyler Tscherter hit a home run with three RBI as part of a 2-for-4 performance at the plate, while Nick Tscherter, an eighth-grader, was 2-for-2 with two doubles and three more RBI.

The win was the fifth in the last six tries for the Rebels.

Wednesday's softball: Spartans miss chances, falter against Comets

By JAKE RYDER
The Grundy Register
GRUNDY CENTER – Megan Yantis doesn't want the BCLUW softball team to get caught flat-footed on a day where one run might not be enough.

As it turned out, the Comets head coach admitted a win was a win as BCLUW claimed a 1-0 victory against Grundy Center, the second-consecutive game where the Comets, ranked fifth in Class 1A, had won an NICL West matchup with a single run after Monday's 1-0 win at home against West Marshall.

"We hit the ball alright, and we mostly hit it right at them," Yantis said. "We had runners on when we needed to, we had the right runners on, our fast runners, but we just couldn't get them around. ... Our defense stepped it up but one of these days, 1-0 isn't going to be enough and we need to figure out how to execute and score a few more runs."

The only run came in the top of the first inning, when Olivia Hughes reached on an infield error, advanced to third on a Kiersten Kruse single and finally came home on a wild pitch. After that, BCLUW left a total of six runners on in the next six innings, with Grundy Center stranding nine, including having the bases loaded in the sixth and having two runners on in the seventh.

"One error in the first inning resulted in one run, but I never thought we wouldn't be able to score against them," said Grundy Center assistant coach Joel Johnson, filling in at third-base coach for head coach Jeff Mathews, who had a scheduling conflict and wasn't in attendance Wednesday. "I felt the kids played hard but we left some runners out there. Wasn't a lack of effort but there were little things here and there that might have cost us a run.

"But the kids competed hard, and any time you can play a team like BCLUW to a close game like this, it changes the whole complexion of the game and you gotta be proud of these girls."

The pitching was fairly even between both teams, with BCLUW's Bailey Ashton striking out four, issuing three walks and scattering five hits and Grundy Center's Megan Beck striking out four with a walk and an earned run on six hits.

"It was good to get another win under our belts," Ashton said. "I was a little shaky at first, it was hard to figure out where to put it to get the calls in the strike zone. ... One run helped our confidence but we need to get those runs again in the following innings."

BCLUW got a leadoff single from Lili Wilson and that runner advanced to third with only one out in the sixth inning, but Beck and the Spartans were able to hold on to keep it at a one-run game.

"Megan has really matured a lot this year," Johnson said of the Spartan junior. "When there are runners on, she amps it up more, focuses more and she's not walking as many batters as she used to, she's really become more of a pitcher this year."

Brooke Flater led the Spartans with a pair of hits, including the first one of the game for the Spartans in the fifth inning – Grundy Center's only base-runners in the previous innings came on walks from Ashton.

"It's great to see her having the confidence she needs," Yantis said. "She did a great job of coming back after a shaky start and finishing it through."

Wolverines finish sweep of Knights

LA PORTE CITY – Dike-New Hartford softball polished off a 13-7 win against Union in a make-up game from the weather-postponed doubleheader at Union High School on May 28.

The Wolverines scored nine runs in the top of the third and that ended up being plenty for D-NH, completing the doubleheader sweep of the Knights at long last after winning the first game of the twinbill back in May, 15-12.

Full statistics were not available for Wednesday's game at press time.

Rebel offense runs dry against Trojans

STATE CENTER – Gladbrook-Reinbeck had a nice start to answer West Marshall's early offense, but the Trojans hammered out nine runs in the sixth inning to end this NICL West game early, 17-7, at West Marshall High School.

Reagan Skovgard was a home run away from hitting for the cycle for the Rebels, collecting a single, a double, a triple, and four runs batted in. Taylor Gienger was 2-for-3 at the plate with an RBI and Alyssa Morgan and Jada Schlapp contributed an RBI each.

The Rebels were closest midway through the second inning, scoring four runs to stay within a single tally of West Marshall, 5-4. They pulled within one run again in the sixth inning at 8-7 before the Trojans pulled away.

Wednesday's baseball: Spartans pile on Comets

By JAKE RYDER
The Grundy Register
GRUNDY CENTER – The opportunity would be there for Grundy Center baseball, Pat Brown figured.

The Spartan head coach knows the extra workload his baseball players have taken on, and how that would eventually translate into a late-game offensive surge, scoring seven runs in the sixth inning to put Wednesday's NICL West matchup with BCLUW out of reach, 9-1, at the George Wilhelm Sports Complex.

Cale Hendricks led the Spartans with two RBI, both of those runs scoring on a fly ball that rolled to the wall and really burst the game open for the Spartans. Grundy Center also capitalized on some Comet errors and pitching miscues.

"It was pretty similar to our Ackley game the other night," Brown said. "We left a lot of guys out there and we did the same tonight, but I knew that when we'd have an opportunity to bust this game open that we were going to."

It was all in service of helping out Spartan starter Brayden Sawyer, as the freshman claimed victory with one run allowed on three hits, striking out five with two walks. Dayne Zinkula allowed one hit in an inning of scoreless relief.

"I was throwing strikes and my defense was really good behind me making the plays," Sawyer said.

Both teams left chances on the basepaths after an eventful first inning.

BCLUW scored first in the top half on a Noah Gallentine RBI single that brought Coby Willett home.

The Spartans tied the game at 1-1 when Marshall Day scored on a Comet error and took the lead for good after a Landon Graham RBI single to bring home Hendricks.

Between the end of the first inning and Grundy Center's sixth-inning explosion, the Spartans left six on base.

The Comets were able to put it in play often on Wednesday, but the Spartans always seemed to be right there to make the play, including some nice plays by Sawyer himself.

"We're not the flashiest team, yet, but they put themselves in front of the ball and make plays," Brown said. "Sternhagen had a couple nice picks at first and everyone's picking up anyone who makes a mistake out there. They know the guy ahead of them or behind them will get it if they didn't."

BCLUW's bullpen was a little bare on Wednesday night after some busy JV and varsity pitching earlier in the week, so when Koty Kruse left in the sixth inning with an arm injury BCLUW coach Matt Zoske had to send out Mason Yantis, a novice pitcher but the only one left that was eligible.

"I don't think the score was quite indicative of how we played," Zoske said. "Our defense really bailed out our pitchers at times. We just couldn't string things together. ... It's unfortunate the score is what it was but GC made the plays and pitches when they needed to."

Sawyer says it all boils down to a phrase commonly heard from Brown's third-base coaching box throughout Wednesday's game and all summer long: "We play to win."

"We're always pushing hard to get better every practice," Sawyer said. "We're all in it, we all want to win and everybody's focused."

That's music to Brown's ears.

"It's fun watching them enjoy themselves and enjoy baseball," Brown said.

Tigerhawks no match for D-NH bats

WEST UNION – Reece Beuter was a triple short of the cycle with three hits, including a double and a home run, driving in three runs in Dike-New Hartford baseball's 12-1 victory over North Fayette Valley in non-league action last Wednesday.

Ely Sohn was 3-for-5 with three RBI and three stolen bases and Parker Kiewiet added three more hits, scoring twice. In total, the Wolverines racked up 12 runs on 15 hits, including nine unanswered runs to start the game before NFV got on the board with its single tally in the bottom of the fourth inning.

Devon Kollasch earned the pitching victory with six innings as the night's starter, striking out four with three walks and allowing one earned run on five hits. Zak Wauters came on in the seventh for an inning of shutout relief, striking out two with no hits allowed.

Division-leading Trojans win pair from Cougars

ACKLEY – West Marshall won both games in a rare NICL West doubleheader at AGWSR, defeating the Cougars 11-0 and 12-2 in five-inning contests.

The originally scheduled AGWSR game at West Marshall was postponed to this date instead and turned into a doubleheader.

AGWSR managed just two hits off the Trojans' pitcher Cameron Bannister in the first game, and West Marshall racked up eight runs in the second inning. Bannister struck out nine.

The Cougars picked up two runs in the fifth inning of the nightcap, but couldn't score enough to keep the game going after the Trojans' offensive surge, which included a home run from West Marshall's Josh Larsen. AGWSR collected three hits off Kinnick Christensen in the defeat.

STATE CENTER – Grundy Center fell to PCM in the first game of the Rose Festival Tournament hosted by West Marshall, but the Spartan baseball team didn't get a chance to finish their game with Baxter, tied 2-2 before storms rolled into the area and washed out the rest of play.

PCM defeated the Spartans 10-3 to end Grundy Center's four-game winning streak. Marshall Day, Landon Graham and Matthew Sternhagen all plated a run for the Spartans, but PCM scored the first six runs of the game and limited Grundy Center to three total hits.

Grundy Center went back to NICL West play at West Marshall on Monday, hosted GMG on Tuesday, went back on the road against East Marshall on Wednesday, and will wrap up the week on Thursday at Gladbrook-Reinbeck.

Saturday's softball: Indians escape Spartans late

By JAKE RYDER

The Grundy Register

GREENE – Grundy Center softball hung with Clarksville, third-ranked in Class 1A, but the Indians finally put the Spartans away with three late runs in a 4-1 win over Grundy Center as part of two games for the Spartans at a North Butler tournament.

Emma Beck brought in the lone run for the Spartans in the third inning, scoring Sydney Mathews after a Clarksville error fielding Beck's fly ball.

Bailey Myers broke the 1-1 tie in the sixth inning with a two-RBI single for Clarksville, and the Indians added an insurance run in the seventh inning.

Beck finished with three earned runs allowed on seven hits, striking out five with one walk. Clarksville pitcher Kori Wedeking struck out 10 with one walk, allowing the unearned run on three hits.

In the second game of the day, Hampton-Dumont-CAL held off Grundy Center 3-0.

Megan Beck held the Bulldogs to three hits in the pitching circle, but two unearned runs and only one hit for Grundy Center's offense limited the Spartans in a five-inning game for third place at the tournament.

The Spartans play at East Marshall on Wednesday, at Gladbrook-Reinbeck on Thursday.

Boone defeated the Comets 12-2 and North Polk won 6-2 against BCLUW.

North Polk also scored the first six runs against BCLUW, including a four-run outburst in the fifth inning. Lili Wilson had two hits and a double but the Comets couldn't overcome the early deficit once again.

BCLUW played at South Hardin on Monday, faced Hudson on Tuesday and hosted AGWSR on Wednesday. BCLUW will play another two-day tournament, this one at Marshalltown, on Friday and Saturday.

Berendes homers, Rebels come up short

GLADBROOK – GMG's early 7-0 lead was just enough for a 7-5 win against Gladbrook-Reinbeck on Saturday.

Haleigh Berendes had a double, a home run and two RBI for the Rebels and Rachel Cooley added three hits with a triple, but the Rebels couldn't quite get out of the early hole against the Wolverines.

G-R finished with 12 hits, including four extra base hits against GMG, a team that the Rebels beat 16-15 in the season opener on May 24.

The Rebels (1-9) traveled to AGWSR on Monday and West Marshall on Wednesday before ending the week at home against Grundy Center on Thursday.

REINBECK – Tyler Tschertter hit three home runs, including a grand slam in the sixth inning, but West Marshall racked up 12 runs in the seventh inning of a wild 21-14 game at Gladbrook-Reinbeck.

Tschertter's other two roundtrippers scored two and three runs each for a total of nine runs batted in. William Kiburis added a couple RBI and Keagan Giesking was 2-for-5 with two stolen bases.

West Marshall led 9-5 after four innings before G-R surged back to a 14-9 lead. The two teams' pitching combined to issue 25 walks.

Tschertter, a junior, ended his week with six home runs in three games and increased his total to nine home runs in 12 games this season.

Thursday's softball: BCLUW, AGWSR win key league contests

By JAKE RYDER
The Grundy Register

CONRAD – Easton Swanson delivered a two-out, two-run double to lift the Class 1A No. 5 Comets to a 7-6 victory over 2A No. 10 East Marshall in a pivotal NICL West match-up at David Lee Field.

As a result, the Comets have opened a two-game lead on East Marshall in the NICL West standings. BCLUW has five games left on their league schedule.

Swanson's hit completed a big comeback for the Comets after East Marshall scored the first five runs of the game, only for the Comets to tie with five runs in the fifth inning. The Mustangs took the lead again in the top of the seventh.

Bailey Ashton struck out 11 with two walks and four earned runs off nine hits as the night's winning pitcher.

The five-run rally in the fifth started when Kennedy Williams scored on an error. Then, the fireworks began: Kiersten Kruse slammed a two-out, two-run home run and Swanson did the exact same with a two-run home run two batters later.

The Mustangs took the lead back in the seventh on Reagan McIlrath's RBI double, but Olivia Hughes kept the game alive with a two-out single to put runners on the corners for Swanson. The loss snapped East Marshall's 10-game winning streak.

BCLUW 7, East Marshall 6. WP: Bailey Ashton. Kiersten Kruse HR, 2 RBI; Easton Swanson 4-4, 2 2B, HR, 4 RBI; Madison Ubben RBI.

Barrick, Cougars hold off Trojans

ACKLEY – The 1A No. 6 AGWSR softball team clinged to a 2-1 victory against West Marshall to allow the Cougars to keep pace with the top half of the NICL West.

sacrifice fly, ended up being enough for AGWSR, as Taryan Barrick struck out 12 with three walks, allowing one earned run on two hits as Thursday's winning pitcher.

West Marshall cut AGWSR's lead in half in the top of the seventh, scoring on a wild pitch, and the potential game-tying run was on second before a groundout to second ended the Trojan threat and the game.

AGWSR 2, West Marshall 1. WP: Taryan Barrick. Ali Gerbracht RBI; Rachel Sicard RBI; Taylor Sperflage 2-3; Josie Winterberg 3-3.

Warhawks rout Rebels in four

WEST FORK – Gladbrook-Reinbeck softball took a 13-1 defeat in four innings against West Fork in non-league play.

Haleigh Berendes and Jada Schlampp each hit a double for the Rebels, and Alyssa Morgan crossed the plate as the lone run for the Rebels in the bottom of the second inning to make the score 6-1. From there, the Warhawks scored three in the third inning and ended the game early with four runs in the fourth inning.

The loss extended G-R's winless streak to seven games.

Cale Hendricks drove in two runs for the Spartans and also got the pitching victory with two earned runs on three hits, walking four with two strikeouts. Brayden Sawyer and Travis Kuester added RBIs for the Spartans.

South Hardin didn't get on the board until the seventh inning, and Dayne Zinkula came on in relief of Hendricks after the Tigers scored two runs to get the final two outs and clinch the victory for the Spartans.

Three Comets added an RBI each, including Treye Teske, who also earned the pitching victory by holding the Mustangs to six hits in seven shut-out innings, walking three and striking out three.

The win ends a nine-game skid for the Comets. A BCLUW victory earlier this season against Gladbrook-Reinbeck was later forfeited due to an unknown violation.

Friday's baseball: D-NH rallies twice, still undefeated

By JAKE RYDER
The Grundy Register

DIKE – Most scoring deficits are going to feel tame for Dike-New Hartford baseball this summer.

The Wolverines showed that they could erase a 10-run deficit on the road at Charles City on June 7, and D-NH needed to find a way exactly one week later when rival Aplington-Parkersburg came to town.

The Falcons brought some of the toughest challenges the Wolverines have faced yet, but a couple of rallies kept D-NH out of the loss column with an NICL East sweep at Dike-New Hartford High School.

Matt Reinicke delivered a game-winning single as D-NH claimed Game 1, 2-1, in eight innings. A-P put up five runs in the first two innings against D-NH in Game 2, but the Wolverines bounced back for a 7-5 victory to complete the sweep.

"There's no quit with these guys," D-NH head coach Sean Leonard said. "We knew it'd be a battle, but I'm really proud of how the guys came back and chipped away."

Dike-New Hartford, rated No. 2 in Class 2A by the Iowa High School Baseball Coaches Association, improved to 19-0 and begins the third full week of June as one of only four remaining undefeated teams in the state, one of two in Class 2A; West Lyon (14-0) is the other.

Game 1's scoring started in the second inning as A-P eighth grader Garrett Hempen brought Aaron Price home in the second inning with an RBI grounder.

Though the Wolverines out-hit A-P 14-3 in the opening game, D-NH didn't even the game up until the fifth inning when Tim Koop came home on a ball put into play by Reece Beuter. Beuter was also looking for the victory on the mound, but was pulled as the game went to extra innings with one hit allowed, no earned runs and seven strikeouts with three walks.

Zak Wauters entered in the eighth and got the first two outs before Jacob Derifield reached on a single. Riley Oberhauser singled to right and took second when the Wolverines tried to get Derifield out heading to third base. The Wolverines issued Aaron Price an intentional walk to load the bases.

Hudson Morris, also looking to make something happen for his effort on the pitching mound, hit a hard liner that D-NH second baseman Tim Koop snagged before it could sail into the outfield, leaving three Falcons stranded.

Beuter led off the bottom of the eighth with a single, stole second during Ely Sohn's at-bat and looked like he could potentially score on Sohn's single up the middle, but Leonard gave Beuter the stop sign as Beuter was rounding third and Beuter slipped in the grass on his way around third, hobbling back to the base and eventually coming out for pinch runner Gus Varney.

Leonard noted that Beuter appeared to have some sort of hamstring injury, the severity of which was unknown on Friday night; Beuter was in enough pain that playing in Game 2 in any capacity was out of the question, however.

Nonetheless, the stage was set for Reinicke. "We felt good with him in that situation, runner at third, no outs," Leonard said. "He's come up with those clutch hits in the past."

Reinicke felt confident that even if he couldn't do it, someone further down the lineup could make it happen.

"There's confidence all throughout our lineup, 1 through 9," said Reinicke, a junior. "Everybody can get the job done."

Reinicke started Game 2, and A-P wasted little time roughing up the Game 1 hero, putting up four runs in the first inning and scoring a fifth on an RBI double from Riley Oberhauser in the second inning.

D-NH settled in from there, starting with a Ryan Moore RBI single in the bottom half of the second. In the third, Zak Wauters added a run-scoring single and Zach Starbuck brought in two with a hit to the right-center gap. Kolbi Rice came in for Game 2 starter Oberhauser to get A-P out of the inning.

The Falcons left two on in the fourth inning and two errors and an RBI single for Wauters put D-NH ahead for good. Wauters also went back on the mound for seven outs of relief, striking out four with two walks in a hitless, scoreless appearance on the bump.

"He's really thrived in that role," Leonard said of Wauters, "he's very good in that spot."

The Wolverines played a single game against East Marshall on Monday and will play two at Jesup on Wednesday before a game against Algona at Saydel High School on Friday and a matchup with Des Moines Christian on Saturday at Ankeny High School.

"We hadn't been tested a lot like that this year but we need that, that helps us for the postseason," Wauters said. "We need to embrace that pressure. ... [A-P's] a good group and we know we get everybody's best. They were vocal and ready to go tonight and we just

Friday's softball: Wolverines settle for split

By JAKE RYDER
The Grundy Register

DIKE – Dike-New Hartford softball was aggressive in a 14-4 victory over Aplington-Parkersburg in Game 1 of an NICL East doubleheader on Friday night, but the Falcons answered with a 7-6 win in Game 2, holding off a late Wolverine rally as D-NH split with the Falcons at Dike-New Hartford High School.

The Wolverines scored two runs in the seventh and had the potential tying run at second with one out, but A-P's Makena Brouwer made a nice catch on a pop fly to shallow center for the second out and Falcons pitcher Hailey DeVries got the third out to end D-NH's late threat.

D-NH hit well in both games, but were able to get lots of timely hitting in Game 1. Abby Sohn drove in four runs and Taylor Kvale plated three runners, with each collecting three hits for D-NH. Lydia Huntington was 3-for-4 with a double and an RBI as well and Jillian Beuter batted 2-for-4 with a couple RBI.

That was a lot of run support for Abby Sohn, who struck out five with one walk and three earned runs on 10 hits in six innings in the circle in Game 1.

"We were very aggressive and did a great job on the bases in Game 1," D-NH head coach Rhandi Oelmann said. "We made them make plays that caused errors for them as well. Second game, we were just content to step in and take some swings and we really didn't push them like the first game."

Despite that disappointment that ultimately snapped the D-NH girls' four-game winning streak, Oelmann said the team has been focused on making improvements from last season's 7-20 season, a win total that they've already matched in about half of the games compared to last summer.

D-NH heads to Jesup for two games on Wednesday and plays at a Dunkerton tournament on Saturday.

"The girls still came out fighting and we got two runs in the seventh in that second game, we had a chance to win there at the end," Oelmann said. "Our biggest strength is that we're quick on the bases and we can put bunts down and force teams to make those plays. Our defense has been strong behind Abby Sohn, who has been doing a great job in the circle for us."

"We had parents that did a good job of getting the kids in the gym and working on things and that's helped these girls a lot and made us a stronger team for this year, I can't thank those parents enough for their help."

D-NH 14, A-P 4 (6 inn), WP: Abby Sohn. D-NH: Taylor Kvale 3-3, 2B, 3 RBI; Alysa Fettkether 2-5; Whitney Wauters 2-4; Lydia Huntington 3-4, 2B, RBI; Abby Sohn 3-4, 2B, 4 RBI; Jillian Beuter 2-4, 2 RBI.

Beck, Spartans win pair against Tigers

GRUNDY CENTER – The Grundy Center softball team finished off a suspended game against South Hardin for a 9-3 victory on Friday and the Spartans went on to win the regularly scheduled game, too, 4-1 victors against the Tigers at the George Wilhelm Sports Complex.

The Spartans ended a three-game winless streak in the process. The May 29 game against South Hardin was postponed with the game tied at 2-2, and Grundy Center picked up strong with six runs in the sixth
